AT Mozart Park, Monday afternoon and evening, September 3, the Mozart Singing Society will give a Grand Concert, when that gifted young soprano, Miss Electa Gifford, will appear for the first time before the general public of this city.

The Chicago Journal of December 3, 1893, speaking of her, says:

"Miss Gifford's voice is a soprano of lovely quality, and her training has evidently been under the guidance of a master hand. Her repose, musically phrasing and absolute control of voice from full tone to the finest pianissimo, her neat and facile execution, are qualities of great artistic merit, which were generously recognized by the audience. Her singing of 'Solovejka,' by Grieg, has never been equaled in Chicago excepting when sung by that charming singer, Mrs. George Henschel. The young concert-giver may gratefully herself upon this emphatic success."

A Pleasant Event.

Misses Emma and Stella McNash, of South Jacob street, last night entertained a number of their friends in honor of Miss Bertha Philpott, of Ravenna, O., who has been their guest for some time. The evening was spent in social enjoyment and at a proper hour a tempting collation of refreshments was served. All present enjoyed a pleasant evening and looked upon the time for departure with regret.

Pat Burke Goes to Jail.

The hearing of Pat Burke, at Bridgeport, for his conduct toward the young child of Mr. Gardner, of Annapolis, was held before the mayor yesterday afternoon. He was discharged on the charge of assault, but was fined on three charges for obscene language and exposure of person. He was fined $10 and costs on each charge, the whole amounting to $32. He was unable to pay and was taken to St. Clairsville to jail.

Sample-Morton Nuptials.

E. C. Sample, formerly with George M. Snook &amp; Co., of this city, and now with Joseph Horne &amp; Co., of Pittsburgh, Pa., was united in marriage with Miss Mary J. Morton, at Washington, Pa., yesterday morning.

Quite an array of costly and useful presents were given them by their friends. They left at 9:45 over the Chartiers road for Washington, D. C., and other eastern cities on a wedding trip.

Engineers' Picnic.

The picnic given by Seabright Division No. 477, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, enjoyed good weather, good attendance and had a fine amusement programme. The afternoon attendance was about the average, but as evening approached the incline did a large business. The amusements consisted of quail pitching, wheelbarrow and bicycle races, dancing and bowling. Those having the affair in charge deserve credit for the marked success in which everything was conducted.

A Sudden Death.

Mrs. William West, wife of the well known drayman, who resided on Fifteenth street, died yesterday morning under peculiar circumstances. She had been a sufferer from sciatic rheumatism for some time, but had not been seriously ill. She retired Monday evening in as good health as usual. About 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning she awakened her husband and told him she was suffering much pain and thought she was going to die, and asked him to cross the street and bring their daughter to the house. Mr. West went for his daughter and on his return about ten minutes later Mrs. West was dead.

A Foot Race by Veterans.

A very exciting foot race in which were three contestants, ranging in age from fifty-five to sixty-five years, occurred on Twenty-fourth street Monday evening. These three were disputing as to the relative amount of speed they could develop in case something dangerous should undertake to capture them. The argument waxed warm and to settle the dispute they joined in a foot race. The race was to take place between Main and Market streets, but the older man misunderstood the arrangement and made the distance to Chapline street, and tried to reach the goal on his return. In this he failed and the race was given to one of his younger competitors. The event caused considerable amusement to the community, and a large number of spectators witnessed it.

THE PIONEERS' PICNIC.

Very Successful Annual Reunion Given Yesterday.

The annual reunion and picnic of the German Pioneers' Society, held at Wheeling park yesterday, was as successful and enjoyable an affair as the most enthusiastic members of the society could hope for. The attendance of members and their families was comfortably large, and it was a very congenial assemblage that gathered to listen to the opening address of the president, Mr. Wiedebusch. After a brief address of welcome he introduced Dr. C. F. Ulrich, who spoke briefly and then read a fine poem in German. Mr. Fred Myers read an English poem dealing with the finances of the society in a very amusing way. It was much enjoyed.

Mr. A. W. Campbell was then introduced, and spoke of the Germans in the fatherland and in this country, and of their introduction into America, of such occasions as that celebrated yesterday. While they were an industrious and frugal race, they yet found ample time for rational pleasure.

Mr. Campbell also, on behalf of the society, presented to Dr. Ulrich a handsome cane. Yesterday was the doctor's 67th birthday, and the cane was a token of the esteem in which he is held by his fellow members.

The rest of the afternoon was devoted to social pleasures, and the party returned to the city at a seasonable hour with none but pleasant memories of the enjoyable afternoon in the beautiful park.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

The Short Creek M. E. Sunday school will hold its annual picnic at the church on Short Creek to-day.

HENRY FRAVEL, a plain drunk, was arrested last evening by Officer Craighton.

NEXT Tuesday evening the amusing farce-comedy, "Our Flat," will be the attraction at the Opera House.

The curb stones have been hauled for the extension of Forty-third street from Wood street to the Mozart park incline.

The members of the Wesley M. E. church Sunday school will picnic to-day at Whiteman's Grove in North Benwood.

The curbing is being dressed for the new street paving on Thirty-third street and on Jacob street south of Thirty-third.

THE A. O. H. comes out in a card thanking the public for the liberal patronage given at the picnic of the order at Wheeling Park.

To-morrow evening Rice &amp; Barton's famous comedians will open an engagement of three nights and a matinee at the Grand. They give a great show.

Last night William Black, an oil man from Sistersville, very sick, was brought up on the Ohio River road and taken to the North Wheeling hospital for treatment.

CHIEF HEALY and the members of the fire department have been making some improvements in the alarm wire system and fixing the poles. The system is now in good shape.

The Wheeling fair next week will draw the usual crowds from this section. Some of the farmers and fruit growers of this county will have exhibits there.—Beltre Independent.

A MAN named Muehan fell in a fit yesterday afternoon near the Ohio River tracks at Forty-third street. He was taken to his home on Thirty-eighth street where he soon recovered.

The funeral of Mrs. Robert Y. Britt, the death of whom occurred on Monday, will take place this afternoon from the residence on Elizabeth street. The interment will take place at Peninsular cemetery.

In the police court yesterday morning Hugh Devaney, accused of disorderly conduct, was discharged. Albert Boone, a plain drunk, paid $1 and costs. Reynolds Fields, up for disorder, was let go, and Andy Geddon, also a disorderly, went to the bill for fifteen days in default of $1 and costs.

An Interesting Relic.

Yesterday Mr. S. F. Faris showed an Intelligencer reporter a cane with a history. The silver knob bears the inscription: "Presented by Henry Clay to S. Busbey." When given to the late Sam Busbey by Henry Clay the head was on an ebony stick, which was accidentally broken. The head was recently sent to S. Busbey, Jr., of Short Creek, who showed it to Mr. Faris. The latter had a piece of a black walnut girder out of the old Stone church, and out of it he made a neat stick and fitted the old silver knob on it.

Mrs. Worthington's Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Hood Worthington, who died at Danville, Ky., Sunday, occurred yesterday afternoon from the residence of Mr. L. R. Moise, on South Broadway, Island. Rev. Dr. Cooke, of the Second Presbyterian church, officiated. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery. Dr. Hildreth, William Ewing, Alex. Glass, Percy Norton, Julius Hearn and W. List were the pall bearers.

THERE is a rare musical treat in store for the citizens of Wheeling and vicinity, at the concert of the Mozart Singing Society at Mozart Park, Monday afternoon and evening, September 3. That charming soprano, Miss Electa Gifford, has been secured by the management for the occasion. The leading papers of the country speak very highly of her ability.

Worcester (Mass.) Spy, July 18, 1892.

"Miss Gifford sang Campion's 'Ninety and Nine' in a most artistic manner. She possesses a wonderful voice and a knowledge of how to use it."

Twelve (Ohio) Blade, April 16, 1893.

"The appearance of Miss Gifford was the signal for loud and prolonged applause. As charming in face and manner as in voice, Miss Gifford is one of this city's most popular vocalists."

The last selection given was "Little Boy Blue," whose simple and pathetic story has recaptured not only the magic of the poet's touch, but last night was rendered even more beautiful by Miss Gifford's sweet voice."

Some things to remember in selecting Wall Paper: Blues, grays and drabs for south rooms; reds, orange and yellows for north rooms; olives, cerus and old blues for west rooms; yellows, terra cotta and old rose for east rooms. Come to 1011 Main street for ideas.

LIGHT-WEIGHT OVERCOATS—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

OUR

Battery!

Light-Weight Overcoats!

Your greatest need now. Their comfort makes necessities of them. We're not pig-headed nor blindly conceited, if anybody made a better garment than we now handle we'd have 'em, but they don't, tailored as ours are the best. They won't admit that they're as good as can be made to order, but that's true, too. Fashion is dead struck on length again this season. So ours are long and full back, and we've got 'em in whatever shade, whatever weave, whatever size you want.

$5 to $20.

Fall Suits Are Here Whenever You Want Them.

BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

This season doesn't get very old before the little folks must be supplied. Schools opening hurries matters for them. If it's to-morrow you come you'll find us ready for you. It's been a hard task to overdo last year's good work, but we've succeeded by crowding and contriving. We've got more room, and quickly filled it with the largest variety of Boys' Long Pants and Children's Short Pants Suits we ever had, pure novelties, all exclusive, and when you see the qualities and hear the prices you'll say we have done wonders.

OUR NECKWEAR DEPARTMENT

Is alive with the Fall Shades and Shapes with our 25 and 50 centers to the front as usual.

Boys, of course you've seen THE HUB'S Multiform Combination Top, the greatest puzzle of the age. Hundreds of them in use. Everybody is wild about them. We will pay $5.00 in gold to the boy or girl that can spin it in the greatest number of ways. Contest to take place in our new and elegant Boy's and Children's Department, October 4. Try your luck. Try your luck. A Top with every Boys' Suit.

FALL, 1894--THE HUB

Men's Clothing, Boys' Clothing, Hats, Furnishing Goods.

All our big guns are sighted and ready for the Fall campaign, loaded to the muzzle with competition-killing quality and variety. We've worked hard, probed deep into the markets, weighed values carefully, compared styles critically, and brought the best to be had in all the country to our counters. The flurry in money matters has seriously embarrassed many of the leading manufacturers, but whenever we went we carried the cash, gaining concessions in price, that you shall share with us, creating opportunities that you shall profit in. Already the great army of buyers is besieging our citadel of fashion. The fleeing season has enticed Autumn close to the border line of Summer, making the Summer weights needful and a change of style desirable. Every demand is met, every whim is fostered, every confidence is sustained in this great aggregation of wearables.
